

2. Subject Matter References: Essential references, listed by subject, that support and aid in the understanding and treatment of field office resource concerns and problems.

Agronomy References

Conservation Tillage: Problems and Potentials

CORE 4 Conservation Practices (August 1999)

Weeds of the North Central States, Circular 718

More Profit with Less Tillage

Weed Control Guide for Missouri Field Crops (Current Issue)

Predicting Rainfall Erosion Losses - AH 537

Biology References

Wildlife Management for Missouri Landowners, Third Edition, MDC, 2000

Wildlife Habitat Appraisal Guide for Missouri (4/82)

Engineering References.

Design Guidelines for Animal Waste Management DNR Manual 121 (7/89)

Missouri Well Construction, Misc Publication 50. DNR Division of Geology and Land Survey (3/95)

Forage References

Pasture and Range Plants; Phillips Petroleum Company

Grass: The Stockman's Crop - How to Harvest More of It.

The Key to Profitable Livestock Production - Understanding Grass Growth

Vegetating with Native Grasses in NE North America (1998)

Weed and Brush Control Guide for Forages, Pastures and Non-cropland in Missouri (Current Issue)

Wisconsin Pastures for Profit

Forestry References

Forest Management for Missouri Landowners, MDC, 2000:

http://www.conservation.state.mo.us/documents/forest/private/forest_manag.pdf

Windbreaks for Conservation. Ag Bulletin 339

Trees of Missouri

Missouri's Oaks and Hickories

Missouri Urban Trees (MDC, 1997):

<http://www.conservation.state.mo.us/forest/urban/urbantree/index.shtml>

Timber Resources of Missouri's Regions. USDA - Forest Service (1990)

Missouri Woodlands (NRCS)

Agroforestry Notes

Wetland References

Wetland Types in Missouri

Forested Wetlands (1995)

Midwestern Wetland Flora:

<http://www.npwrc.usgs.gov/resource/othrdata/plntguid/plntguid.htm>

Federal Manual for Identifying and Delineating Jurisdictional Wetlands

Field Indicators of Hydric Soils in the United States (Ver 5.0, 2002):

http://www.statlab.iastate.edu/soils/hydric/field_v5.pdf

Aquatic and Wetland Plants of Missouri

Miscellaneous References

Land Capability Classification - AH 210

NRCS Missouri Technical Notes

UMC Agricultural Guide Sheets

Stream Orders